IMPORTANT NOTICE

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

This includes but is not limited to every fact and matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know that might give rise to a claim against you. This may also include information which is additional to the questions asked in this proposal form.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance. This means that prior to renewal or any policy variations, as well as advising of new information, you also need to advise the insurer of any changes to the facts previously notified.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

If you do not fully and faithfully provide and/or disclose to Liberty facts you know or ought to know with regard to this insurance placement you may receive nothing from this Policy. If you fail to give appropriate disclosure to the insurer, this may permit the insurer to terminate the contract of insurance effective from its commencement date and to recover any claim amounts previously paid by the insurer under the contract.
